WHO WILL PAY?

he was supported by Representatives from some of the outside districts, who made the claim that Honolulu would be the greatest gainer through the work of the Promotion Committee.

A Supervisor, who has been looking into the thing carefully, expressed the belief this morning that, even were there money available, he did not believe that it could be taken lawfully for promotion work. But he was extremely skeptical concerning the ability of the Board to spare the money, were there no legal objections.

Whether the Chamber of Commerce can be called upon for any more money is considered extremely doubtful. The $300 a month which the Shippers' Wharf Association turns over to the Chamber is, in turn, handed to the Promotion Committee, in addition to other assistance that the Chamber renders.

It has been suggested that the business men of this city wish to have a little closer tab on the actions of the Committee than they would have were an appropriation made by the Legislature on behalf of the entire Territory. On the other hand, it is pointed out that, whereas the Legislature has heretofore furnished have put up some $20,000.

There is no difference of opinion concerning the value of the work accomplished by the Promotion Committee, and the question seems to be in regard to the means to be adopted in raising the extra money, and not whether it shall be raised or not.

ALAMEDA NOT FILLED

The steamship Alameda left port this morning for San Francisco with a good sized passenger list, but with three staterooms empty and fifteen empty berths in the saloon.

This fact refutes the statement that there were no accommodations for people seeking to get away to the Coast. The Korea, that left yesterday afternoon, took forty-seven passengers from this port, some of them being return passengers who would have taken passage on the Alameda had they not been traveling on return tickets.

Francisco Frank, a Porto Rican, was given a suspended sentence of thirteen months this morning for assault and battery.
